

Marina the Mermaid

Marina: Hello everyone! It's so nice to be back
I'm Marina the Mermaid, here to keep you on track
I've a story to tell you, a tale to be told
About sailors & pirates and a big pile of gold

Our Story begins with old Captain Flint
Who had so much treasure, no one could say he was skint
Before he expired, he hid his treasure away
Where he had put it, no one could say...

Pirates all over tried to track down the jewels
But most of them just turned out to be fools

But One pirate, so fearsome he'd make you a quiver
The evilr, the dastardly, long John Silver

He had his sidekicks along for the ride
Rosey and Gilly, would roll with the tide

Long John heard tell, that Flint made a map
A way to avoid all the pitfalls and traps

Which leads us now to Old Billy Bones
Keeper of Maps and friend of Joan Stones

Billy was Staying at Ma Hawkins Pub
A odd little place, but he liked the grub

He had befriended Ma's Son Jim
An adventurous young lad, but loveably dim

Jim was in love with the Squires Daughter
A beautiful lass with skin rose water

Felicity too craved adventures afar
But she'd have to dodge her protective papa

There's so much to tell you, we'd better begin
Which takes us quite nicely to the Old Benbow Inn

The patrons recently experienced a forced separation
So you'll have to excuse the wild celebrations